

President's Message

April 2023

Dear Fellow Residents,

Time sure seems to be flying and Spring is in the air. Our Board continues to be very busy. The 2023 membership campaign is underway and doing well. We have begun collecting information for the new Phone Directory. Please return your information forms to the CCVRA box in the Clubhouse as soon as possible to help make this process flow smoothly. We would like to have the most up to date information before we send the document to the printers.

We have finally switched all of our banking over to Provident Credit Union. Treasure Seekers continues to pick up on the first Sunday of each month at 6:30 pm. If you are unable to store your recyclables, they can be dropped off at #60 at anytime throughout the month.

Last month we implemented "Movie Nights". It is our hope that this will turn into a monthly event. I am picking movies based on suggestions that I have received from park residents. If you have any movie suggestions, or suggestions on how we can make this a better experience for you, please let me know.

In April we have no events scheduled beyond Movie Night. If anyone wishes to put on an event or help organize one, please speak to either Kathy Love or myself.

NEW BUSINESS

► PIANO TUNING

As per our lease agreement, the piano was tuned on February 14, 2023. Sheila Wark thanked Weizhi Sun for arranging this.

► DIRECTORY

We will be starting on this shortly. We will be sending out forms to everyone in the Park to ensure our database is up to date. We will follow up door to door with people who don't respond to our form request.

► EVENTS

Movie Nights/Days -

Sheila Wark would like to start having movie showings. She would like suggestions on movies that the residents of the park would like to see. Also, Sheila Wark would like to know whether an evening or weekend day or evening would be the best time for the showings. Sheila's idea is to have the movie with beverages and popcorn. The cost for this would be a donation pot (so people could give what they could) to help cover the cost of refreshments. Participants can bring their own lawn chairs or whatever to make the movie more enjoyable for them. Please call or email Sheila Wark with your ideas/suggestions and we can get this started.

Lantern Festival Concert - February 5 2023.

Courtesy of CCVRA and Northeast Art Troupe. The entertainment was fantastic. We had about 20 people from the Park come out to enjoy the music and dance.

SuperBowl DIY Party - February 12, 2023.

Jo and Jimmy Asplund were the chairs. There was a great turnout. We had 21 people attend. Winners of the football pool were: Carole Childress, Nina Kramer, Jo Asplund and Jimmy Asplund. Everyone had a good time. There was plenty of food.

Bingo - February 16 2023.

Priscilla Mattson, Peggy Wegner and Sheila Wark ran it. There were 17 participants. Everyone seemed to enjoy themselves. Our next Bingo will be held after the Mother's Day luncheon on May 7, 2023.

President's Dinner - February 26 2023.

To honor our past President, Peggy Wegner. We had 40 people sign up. Everyone enjoyed a wonderful spaghetti and meatball dinner, complete with antipasto trays, green and jello salads, garlic bread, and ice cream and cookies for dessert. Thanks go out to Kathy Love and Art Aguiniga for the dinner, Art Aguiniga, Rob Valdez, and Sheila Wark for the room set-up, Weizhi Sun and Pong Yeung for their help in the kitchen, Barb Mattson-Schwartz, Daniel Schwartz and their grandson, Cameron Anderson, for the decorations. Sheila Wark provided the playlist and Kathy Love handed out door prizes.

St. Patrick's Day Dinner - March 25, 2023 6:00 pm to 9:00 pm.

Potluck. Chaired by Peggy Wegner and Sheila Wark. We will be having a potluck dinner, raffle and Celtic playlist for entertainment. Sheila Wark was looking into an Irish Dance Troup to entertain us at the dinner, but unfortunately, they are in a competition that evening.

The Recipe Box

Peel-and-Eat Shrimp

Costco Connection - MARCH 2023

Instructions

Heat oil in an extra-large pan over medium high heat. Add butter and garlic. When garlic softens, add paprika. Once paprika color is infused in the oil, carefully add beer or wine. Let the beer or wine reduce to evaporate the alcohol. (The alcohol has evaporated when there is only a faint smell left. If a strong smell of alcohol remains, reduce it some more.)

Once reduced, add the shrimp all in one layer to prevent steaming and ensure even cooking. Add salt and pepper. Start flipping the shrimp once the sides start turning bright orange (75% cooked). Do not cover or it will create steam and release juices from the shrimp. Cook about 4 more minutes, until the shrimp are bright orange on both sides. Turn off the heat and remove the pan from the stove. Squeeze the lemon and sprinkle the parsley over the shrimp.

Prepare the sauce: Blend all sauce ingredients and microwave in 15-second increments until sugar is dissolved. Serve with the shrimp.

Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Ingredients

- 3 Tbsp olive oil
- 1 Tbsp unsalted butter
- 4 garlic cloves, peeled
- 1/2 Tbsp paprika
- 1 cup beer or wine
- 2 lbs head-on, shell-on fresh shrimp
- 1/2 tsp salt, or to taste
- 1/4 tsp pepper, or to taste
- 1/2 lemon
- 1 bunch parsley, chopped

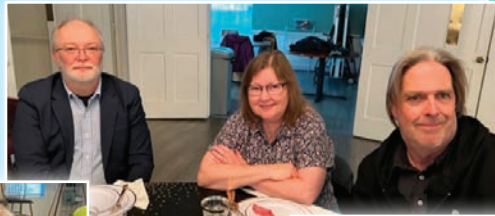

SAUCE

- 1/4 cup white wine vinegar
- 2 Tbsp brown sugar
- 1/2 tsp salt
- 1/2 tsp pepper

Horse Racing Legend

This is an original 1902 photo of Jimmy Winkfield the last African-American jockey to win the Kentucky Derby. He rode back to back winners of the Derby in 1901 and 1902.

Winkfield was born in Chilesburg, Kentucky and began his career as a jockey in 1898 at age sixteen. He was suspended for one year after just one race for his involvement in a four-horse accident at the starting gate.

However, he returned in 1900 to ride Thrive in the Kentucky Derby, finishing third. He rode in the race again in 1901 and 1902, winning on His Eminence and Alan-a-Dale. He won 220 races in 1901.

He was only the second jockey to ride back to back winners of the Kentucky Derby. The first to accomplish it was Isaac Murphy. The feat would not be duplicated until 1967 when Bobby Ussery rode Proud Clarion and then Dancer's Image the following year.

In 1903 with the advent of Jim Crow Laws in the United States, Winkfield emigrated to Russia riding for Tsar Nicholas I and competing at racetracks all over Europe.

He won the Russian Oaks five times, the Russian Derby four times and the Warsaw Derby twice. Arriving in Russia, Jimmy knew not a bit of Russian, but would later become fluent in four languages.

Of Tsarist Russia, Winkfield said:

"Before the revolution that was a good country and I never had to pay no income tax," he said. "There was no prejudice in Russia, not a bit. I would have stayed but for the revolution."

After the Bolsheviks implemented their reign of terror Jimmy stated:

"I got to thinking this ain't no longer a fit place for a small coloured man from Chilesburg, Kentucky, to be."

In 1918, with the Bolshevik army moving into Odessa and burning down the racetrack, Wink led a rag tag band composed of: Russian Nobility, Polish soldiers, his fellow riders, trainers and owners and drove over 250 thoroughbreds across the Transylvanian Alps to Poland - a harrowing thousand-mile odyssey - eating horseflesh to survive.

He left Poland and settled in France where he resumed riding. His numerous wins included the Prix du Président de la République, Grand Prix de Deauville, and the Prix Eugène Adam. He retired as a jockey at age fifty having won more than 2,500 races then began a second successful career as a horse trainer.

Winkfield lived on a farm near the Hippodrome de Maisons-Laffitte (racetrack) in Maisons-Laffitte on the outskirts of Paris. He remained there, even defending his home with a pitchfork against the Nazis, until fleeing the German occupation of France during World War II.

During World War II Winkfield returned to the United States and worked as a groom. In 1953 he went back to France and opened a school for training jockeys with his son, Robert. Wink lived in France until his death in 1974.

While being treated with respect in Europe, segregation still ruled American society. Sports Illustrated invited Winkfield in 1961 as a two-time winner, to a Kentucky Derby banquet. But when he and his daughter arrived at Louisville's historic Brown Hotel, they were told they couldn't use the front door; after a long delay they were let in, but most people at the banquet ignored them. Except for an old competitor. Jockey Roscoe Goose, who rode Donerail to victory in 1913, recognized Jimmy even though he hadn't seen him since their Derby days sixty years earlier, came over, introduced himself, and sat down next to him.

One of the last public photos of Jimmy, was taken at the Kentucky Derby the following day. He was sitting next to his old rival Roscoe, both in suits and hats, smoking cigars, smiling and telling stories to incredulous reporters. Wink had not only outrun his competition on the racetrack but he'd outrun racism once again.

Jimmy Winkfield was inducted into the Racing Hall of Fame in 2004. The following year, the United States House of Representatives passed a resolution honoring Jimmy Winkfield. A race is named in his honor and is run at Aqueduct Race Track.

There are two excellent books on Jimmy Winkfield. One is Wink by Ed Hotelling and the other is Black Maestro by Joe Drape.

February Trip to Yosemite National Park
By Peggy Wegner

Early in February, I took a trip to Yosemite National Park. It is about 200 miles from here and only took four hours. The scenery was fantastic. By going during the winter, the Park is quiet as there are not many tourists there.
