

President's Message

October 2023

Dear Fellow Residents,

Well October is upon us and we have a pretty full schedule for the month. Barb Matson is continuing on with her Exercise classes every Monday and Wednesday morning, Knit and Crochet class on the first and third Wednesday afternoon and Line Dancing every Friday morning. Mary Knoppe continues to host Bible Study every second and fourth Wednesday and Weizhi Sun is continuing on with her Karaoke and Dance every second and fourth Monday. We will also have a Bingo night on October 19, run by Peggy Wegner and Priscilla Mattson. I would like to once again thank everyone for their hard work in volunteering to make these events happen for our community.

We're not doing the regular movie night this month. Tim Gladwin and I (Sheila Wark) are taking a little break to visit with our kids in Canada. It has been quite a while since we have seen them. We will resume the regular Movie Night in November.

Our plans for Halloween are underway for October 28. We will be having a potluck dinner, and screening the movie: Young Frankenstein. We encourage everyone to dress up as one of the movie characters! There will be prizes for best costumes! In addition, we will have a raffle table. Tickets for the raffle will be $1.00 each or 7 for $5.00.

The month will end with our CCVRA Association meeting on October 31, at 6:45 pm. This is your opportunity to come out, meet with your neighbors and address any concerns regarding CCVRA that you may have. Feel free to join us, we would love to see you.

We will soon be electing a new board for 2024. If you would like to join the CCVRA team, please let me know and I'll make sure you are on the nomination list.

Once November rolls around, we have Thanksgiving to look forward to. In light of last year's successful "community dinner", we would like to do it again this year on November 19. We will be looking for volunteers to help us cook the dinner and serve it. Please let me know if you would like to help out.

OLD BUSINESS

► FALL ELECTIONS

Sheila Wark polled the current board and most wish to remain in their current positions. However, if anyone is interested in trying for a seat on the board, please contact Sheila Wark. If necessary, an election will take place.

► THANK YOU CARD

A Thank You card was received from the Melody Chorus Society for our generous donation.

NEW BUSINESS

► GARBAGE CANS

The board has purchased new garbage and recycling cans for our various events. These are to replace the old cans that had the bottoms falling out of them. The new cans are being stored in the SNAP shed.

The Recipe Box

Tzimmes

Costco Connection - September 2023

Instructions

Place all the ingredients into a 6-quart multiuse cooker and stir until well combined.

Close the lid; select manual pressure for 2 minutes. When done, release the pressure using the quick release.

If it's more liquid than you'd like, remove the lid and sauté until liquid evaporates to your liking. It shouldn't be soupy.

Makes 6 servings.

Ingredients

- 2 large yams or sweet potatoes
(about 2 lbs), peeled and cut into
1-inch cubes
- 1 lb carrots, sliced
- 1/2 cup orange juice
- 1-1/2 cups pitted prunes
- 1/2 cup dried cranberries or raisins
- 3 Tbsp brown sugar
- 1 tsp cinnamon
- Salt and pepper, to taste

What I have learned...

- I've learned... that the best classroom in the world is at the feet of an elderly person.
- I've learned... that when you're in love, it shows.
- I've learned... that just one person saying to me, 'You've made my day!' makes my day.
- I've learned... that having a child fall asleep in your arms is one of the most peaceful feelings in the world.
- I've learned... that being kind is more important than being right.
- I've learned... that you should never say no to a gift from a child.
- I've learned... that I can always pray for someone when I don't have the strength to help him in some other way.
- I've learned... that no matter how serious your life requires you to be, everyone needs a friend to act goofy with.
- I've learned... that sometimes all a person needs is a hand to hold and a heart to understand.
- I've learned... that simple walks with my father around the block on summer nights when I was a child did wonders for me as an adult.
- I've learned... that life is like a roll of toilet paper. The closer it gets to the end, the faster it goes.
- I've learned... that we should be glad God doesn't give us everything we ask for.
- I've learned... that money doesn't buy class.
- I've learned... that it's those small daily happenings that make life so spectacular.
- I've learned... that under everyone's hard shell is someone who wants to be appreciated and loved.
- I've learned... that to ignore the facts does not change the facts.
- I've learned... that when you plan to get even with someone, you are only letting that person continue to hurt you.
- I've learned... that love, not time, heals all wounds.
- I've learned... that the easiest way for me to grow as a person is to surround myself with people smarter than I am.
- I've learned... that everyone you meet deserves to be greeted with a smile.
- I've learned... that no one is perfect until you fall in love with them.
- I've learned... that life is tough, but I'm tougher.
- I've learned... that opportunities are never lost; someone will take the ones you miss.
- I've learned... that when you harbor bitterness, happiness will dock elsewhere.
- I've learned... that I wish I could have told my Mom that I love her one more time before she passed away.
- I've learned... that one should keep his words both soft and tender, because tomorrow he may have to eat them.
- I've learned... that a smile is an inexpensive way to improve your looks.
- I've learned... that when your newly born grandchild holds your little finger in his little fist, that you're hooked for life.
- I've learned... that everyone wants to live on top of the mountain, but all the happiness and growth occurs while you're climbing it.
- I've learned... that the less time I have to work with, the more things I get done.

This Day in History

October 3, 1863 - President Lincoln Proclaims Official Thanksgiving Holiday

On October 3, 1863, expressing gratitude for a pivotal Union Army victory at Gettysburg, President Abraham Lincoln announces that the nation will celebrate an official Thanksgiving holiday on November 26, 1863.

The speech, which was actually written by Secretary of State William Seward, declared that the fourth Thursday of every November thereafter would be considered an official U.S. holiday of Thanksgiving. This announcement harkened back to when George Washington was in his first term as the first president in 1789 and the young American nation had only a few years earlier emerged from the American Revolution. At that time, George Washington called for an official celebratory “day of public thanksgiving and prayer.” While Congress overwhelmingly agreed to Washington’s suggestion, the holiday did not yet become an annual event.

Thomas Jefferson, the third president, felt that public demonstrations of piety to a higher power, like that celebrated at Thanksgiving, were inappropriate in a nation based in part on the separation of church and state. Subsequent presidents agreed with him. In fact, no official Thanksgiving proclamation was issued by any president between 1815 and the day Lincoln took the opportunity to thank the Union Army and God for a shift in the country’s fortunes on this day in 1863.

The fourth Thursday of November remained the annual day of Thanksgiving from 1863 until 1939. Then, at the tail-end of the Depression, President Franklin D. Roosevelt, hoping to boost the economy by providing shoppers and merchants a few extra days to conduct business between the Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays, moved Thanksgiving to November’s third Thursday. In 1941, however, Roosevelt bowed to Congress’ insistence that the fourth Thursday of November be re-set permanently, without alteration, as the official Thanksgiving holiday.

Science Heroes - Scientists

Carlos Juan Finlay

by Emma Navajas from Los Angeles, California in United States

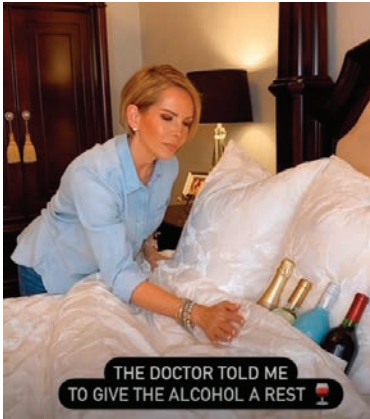

Carlos Juan Finlay was a prominent Cuban physician and scientist in the 20th century. He was the first person to solve the mystery of how yellow fever, a deadly disease affecting the citizens of his native country, came to affect healthy people. Since the first records of the disease had been seen as early as the fifteenth century, the causes of it puzzled doctors and scientists for a long time. Finlay discovered that the disease was carried by mosquitos. Finlay experienced a great deal of resistance whenever he presented his ideas. In fact, in his early years, Finlay was only able to get one person on his side, a Cuban physician named Claudio Delgado.

Finlay was aware that his theories would receive a great deal of rejection. He acknowledged the fact that his findings were challenging ideas that people had believed their entire lives. But, the reactions of his fellow scientists did not stop him from letting his discoveries be heard and he set out to prove them wrong. From the years 1881 to 1900, Finlay began a series of 102 experiments on volunteer human test subjects to further his studies into yellow fever. He had two goals in mind: to prove his hypothesis and to find a way to immunize humans against the disease. During his experiments, Finlay succeeded in infecting his volunteers with yellow fever via a mosquito. Even though he had pretty solid proof, the scientific community continued to doubt his conclusions.

Even though public health officials didn't believe everything that Finlay presented to them, he did encounter some success. He became a leading public health practitioner in Havana, Cuba and the United States Army Yellow Fever Commission often used his discoveries and advice. A short time after Finlay had become involved with the Commission, his time to shine had arrived. The Commission decided to run an official experiment on his mosquito theory and the results confirmed everything that Finlay had ever said. Finlay's career settled with him becoming the Chief Sanitary Officer of Cuba for eight years until he retired in 1909. Finlay's hard work for public health did not go unnoticed. He was nominated seven times for the Nobel Prize in Physiology or Medicine and he received the National Order of the Legion of Honour of France in 1908. Additionally, he was a member of Havana's Royal Academy of Medical, Physical and Natural Sciences. Apart from his accomplishments in the scientific and medical fields, Finlay was fluent in many languages and wrote over 40 articles about yellow fever. Without Carlos Juan Finlay's persistence to prove his findings on yellow fever, the scientific and medical fields would not be as advanced as they are today. He is my hero because he has prevented many people from getting burdened with a terrible disease.

Smiles

I'll never complain about my job again

My wife said to me, "You've put on a lot of weight." I said, "I've had a lot on my plate lately."

So Daffy Duck and Elmer Fudd break into a distillery.
Daffy turns to Elmer and says: "Is this Whiskey?"
Elmer says: "Yeth but not as whiskey as wobbling a bank!!" 🤪🤪🤪🤪

Next time you 'break wind' in public, say "Do I smell popcorn?" Then watch everyone take a deep breath!

For the past 21 years my wife has been complaining about me not putting the cap back on the toothpaste.

Last anniversary, I decided to change this bad habit and make my wife happy. For a week, I was diligent, always capping the toothpaste. I was expecting my wife to thank me, but she never did it. Finally last night, she turned and looked at me and said: "Why have you stopped brushing your teeth?"

Marriage is a difficult relationship, I tell you.

If your dog is barking at the back door and your wife is yelling at the front door, who do you let in first? The dog, of course. He'll shut up once you let him in.
