President's Message

October 2024

To my fellow residents at Cape Cod,

I would like to say thank you to all of you who attended the Luau. Everyone seemed to have a glorious time.

There will be no movie night on October 12th. Because we are having a Cape Cod Anniversary party on October 13th. The doors will open at 5:00. Party is from 5:30-9:00. The chairpersons are the Board. This is a POTLUCK! We hope to see you all there. We like having parties at least once a month. But as many of you know it takes a village to do all the work. We put our heart & souls into these events and they only work if we can count on the residents of the park to attend.

Please see the other upcoming events and our continuing events in the Whaler.

Have a wonderful month.

Kathy Love

The Recipe Box

Banana Apple Muffins

Costco Connection - September 2024

Instructions

Preheat oven to 350 F. Line muffin pans with paper liners or spray-coat with baking spray. Cream butter and sugar in a large bowl. Add eggs and bananas; mix well.

Combine flour, baking powder and salt in a separate bowl. Mix sugar with cinnamon in a small bowl; coat apples with cinnamon-sugar mixture. Gradually add flour mixture and milk to butter mixture, beating on medium speed until combined. Stir in apples and vanilla. Spoon batter into muffin cups until half full. (If desired, sprinkle additional cinnamon and sugar on top.) Bake for 20 minutes. Cool for 10 minutes on a wire rack. Store in an airtight container for up to 4 days.

Makes about 30 muffins.

Ingredients

1 cup butter, softened

1-1/2 cups+ 6 Tbsp sugar

2 eggs

2 bananas, mashed

4 cups all-purpose flour

5 tsp baking powder

1 tsp salt

1 tsp cinnamon

3/4 cup milk

3 cups Gala apples, peeled and chopped

1 tsp vanilla extract

Thank You

MAHALO

I would like to say a great big "MAHALO" to everyone who came to the Luau. I would also like to thank my crew for all of their help. My decorators were Peggy Wegner, Pong Yeung, Weizhi Sun, Art Aguiniga & myself. Pong Yeung, Weizhi Sun, & Art Aguiniga were the food servers with many of you helping to put out the food. There were many who helped clean up. If I have forgotten to thank you personally please forgive me. I do appreciate all of the help. Weizhi Sun, Pong Yeung, Nat Hanson, Jan Trujillo, Rich Trujillo, Alice Goodwin, Bruce Edmundson, Valentina Stahl & Art Aguiniga.

Also thank you to Priscilla Mattson & Kitty Etter for checking everyone in.

Randy Dinga deserves a huge Thank You for playing such good tunes.

Aloha

The Origin of America's Favorite Nursery Rhyme

Davy Crockett's older sister, Effie Crockett was invited to help some mothers in the Muskogee Tribe. Once she arrived in camp, Effie laughed at what she saw. The Muskogee Tribe had a custom of cradling their pappooses among the swaying branches of birch trees. This protected their babies from ground insects, the sun, and wild animals.

After first finding it funny, she soon learned all the great reasons for this practice and marveled at the beauty of it.

Effie watched the swaying and soothing motion of the topmost branches of the trees. She loved how each baby enjoyed nature, how they listened to the songbirds, observed every ladybug, and smiled at the colors of a butterfly, every little breeze was felt and enjoyed by these young ones; each babe seemed perfectly content.

One of the Tribal mothers began to sing a song to the children in her native tongue. As the Muskogee mother sang, Miss Effie observed a small tear running down the mother's cheek.

Lulu se pepe i le pito i luga o le laau,

A agi le matagi e luluina le moega pepe,

A gau le lala e pa'u ai le moega pepe,

Ma o le a sau i lalo pepe, moega pepe ma mea uma.

Effie translated the words and kept the tune. She shared it with everyone and it soon became a wildly popular nursery rhyme among the Colonies.

The English translation:

Rock-a-bye baby on the tree top,

When the wind blows the cradle will rock,

When the bough breaks the cradle will fall,

And down will come baby, cradle and all.

Why did the Muskogee mother cry?

A "bough" is simply a tree branch, and its breaking was used by the Muskogee mothers as an analogy of their little baby growing up.

Their little baby would soon outgrow his cradle. With each gently rocking wind, time was passing. One day, little baby would no longer need the protection of his mother. One day, the "branch" would break because her little baby had become too heavy. The "cradle" would fall to the earth – the child, no longer a baby, would dust himself off and grow into a man.

The now famous lullaby was first printed in Mother Goose's Melody.

The rest is history.

Sunnyvale Mobile Home Park Alliance

October 2024

Here is what's happening

In late 2021, the City of Sunnyvale established a new mobile home park memorandum of understanding ("MOU") to help stabilize space rent and resale prices of owner-occupied mobile homes in Sunnyvale. As part of the new MOU, the City Council approved the creation of an oversight committee called the Compliance Committee.

What is the Compliance Committee?

- It is comprised of mobile home park resident representatives (12) and mobile home park owners (7) to ensure the MOU is being implemented in a fair and successful manner.
- Sunnyvale's Mobile home MOU Compliance Committee (MCC) meets twice a year the first Wednesday in March and October to allow residents to voice concerns and comments about the MOU or their park.
- Each mobile home park in Sunnyvale has a resident representative who attends the meetings answer questions you may have at any time.

LAUGHTER IS THE SOUL'S MEDICINE!!

Vivi-Anne Hultén

Vivi-Anne Hultén who was born on 25th of August 1911 and died on 15th of January 2003 was a Swedish figure skater who competed in ladies' singles. She was the 1936 Olympic bronze medalist, a four-time World medalist, a two-time European bronze medalist, and a ten-time Swedish national champion.

Vivi-Anne Hultén was born in Antwerp, Belgium. She was married twice, first to the American steel importer Nils Tholand. In 1942, she married Gene Theslof, a Finnish figure skater and gymnast, with whom she had a son by the same name. The Teslofs trained their son Gene Theslof III to become a leading adagio skater who toured with Holiday on Ice in the USA during the 1960s. He later became a business executive in California. Hultén died at 91 of heart failure in Corona del Mar, California, surviving her husband by 20 years. She was the grandmother of American professional soccer coach Nick Theslof.

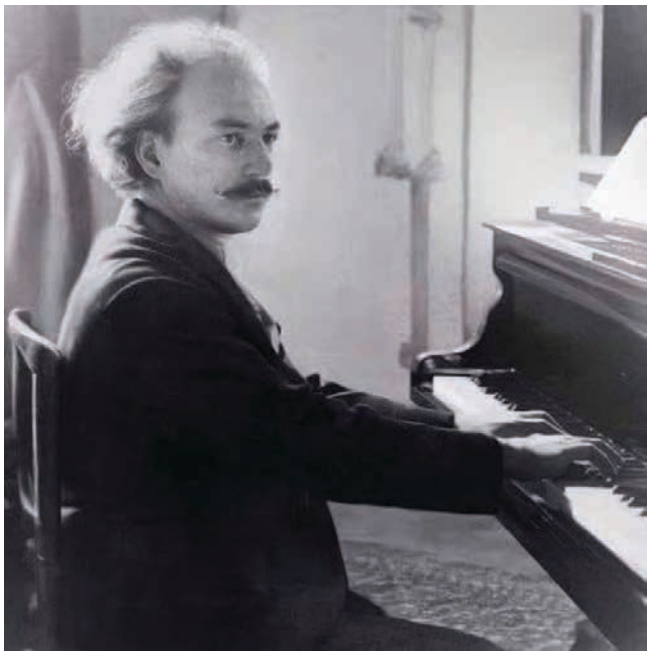
Hultén was coached by a brother of Gillis Grafström. She finished fifth at the 1932 Winter Olympics. In 1933, she finished second to Sonja Henie at the 1933 World Championships held in Stockholm.

Hultén won the bronze medal at the 1936 Winter Olympics in Garmisch-Partenkirchen. When told to do a Nazi salute to Hitler, she declined and said "I am from Sweden. I don't do things like that." Swedish newspapers have named her the country's all-time female athlete. A lake in Budapest has a statue of her performing a spiral.

After turning professional, Hultén toured with the Ice Follies, Ice Cycles, and Ice Capades. She formed an adagio pair with Theslof, her future husband, who had skated with Henie for seven years, and the pair toured the United States and Europe. In the mid 1960s, she settled in the United States and opened a large skating school in St. Paul, Minnesota with Theslof.

Hultén was hired as a skating coach by Herb Brooks for his Minnesota North Stars hockey team. She performed for the King and Queen of Sweden and also skated in ten ice shows with the Ice Capades in Minneapolis, Minnesota up until the age of 80. She actively taught on the ice until age 86.

Haroldo Goldfarb



In 1892 at Stanford University, an 18-year-old student was struggling to pay his fees. He was an orphan, and not knowing where to turn for money, he came up with a bright idea. He and a friend decided to host a musical concert on campus to raise money for their education. They reached out to the great pianist Ignacy J. Paderewski. His manager demanded a guaranteed fee of $2000 for the piano recital. A deal was struck, and the boys began to work to make the concert a success. The big day has arrived. But unfortunately, they had not managed to sell enough tickets. The total collection was only $1600. Disappointed, they went to Paderewski and explained their plight. They gave him the entire $1600, plus a check for the balance $400. They promised to honor the check at the soonest possible. "No," said Paderewski. "This is not acceptable." He tore up the check, returned the $1600 and told the two boys: "Here's the $1600. Please deduct whatever expenses you have incurred. Keep the money you need for your fees. And just give me whatever is left". The boys were surprised and thanked him profusely. It was a small act of kindness. But it clearly marked out Paderewski as a great human being. Why should he help two people he didn't even know? We all come across situations like these in our lives. And most of us only think "If I help them, what will happen to me?" The truly great people think, "If I don't help them, what will happen to them?" They don't do it expecting something in return. They do it because they feel it's the right thing to do. Paderewski later went on to become the Prime Minister of Poland. He was a great leader, but unfortunately when the World War began, Poland was ravaged. There were more than 1.5 million people starving in his country, and no money to feed them. Paderewski didn't know where to turn for help. He reached out to the US Food and Relief Administration for help. He heard there was a man called Herbert Hoover — who later went on to become the US President. Hoover agreed to help and quickly shipped tons of food grains to feed the starving Polish people. The calamity was averted. Paderewski was relieved. He decided to go across to meet Hoover and personally thank him. When Paderewski began to thank Hoover for his noble gesture, Hoover quickly interjected and said, "You shouldn't be thanking me Mr. Prime Minister. You may not remember this, but several years ago, you helped two young students go through college. I was one of them.
